

PDC asked for monetary and item donations for

SSHP held their annual residency panel that was open to all pharmacy students, faculty, and anyone else interested in attending. The panel consisted of three current pharmacy residents. It was a question and answer style panel where the residents explained their current roles in pharmacy residency, how they got there, advice, etc.